

problems with the process it seems to me is that it is a hell of a job to organize it. This is organization. This is real organization that can be translated into a constitutional convention, and I am wondering if we ought not to be real careful about whatever proposals to change the Constitution are framed at this conference that maybe there shouldn't be any framed.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: That's a very real possibility.

SENATOR BEUTLER: And...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Time.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...and if we are going...and if that is going to happen, who is sent there is very important to me.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Beutler and Senator Kristensen. Senator Chambers, your light is next.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Madam President and members of the Legislature, I'd like to ask Senator Kristensen a question.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Kristensen.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Kristensen, on page 208 of the Journal, in paragraph number (3)...

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Just a second, Senator Chambers, I brought the bill...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: ...out and I don't have the Journal, will you wait?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Okay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: This provision talks about this conference being convened no later than two hundred and seventy days after at least twenty-six legislatures adopt this resolution without
